

May Events at the Cripple Creek District Museum

Saturday, May 2 - Join authors Leland Feitz, Celinda Reynolds Kaelin, Kathi MacIver, Jan MacKell and Richard Marold for Bookfest 2009 at the Museum Gift Shop. Feitz, a former curator of the Museum, will be signing his wonderful "Quick History" and other local history books. Many of our guest authors have new books out, including Kaelin's American Indians of the Pikes Peak Region (Arcadia Publishing), MacIver's Historic Places: Cripple Creek, Colorado (Columbine Press), Red Light Women of the Rocky Mountains by MacKell (University of New Mexico Press) and Winfield Scott Stratton: The Reluctant Millionaire by Marold, who does portrayals and programs on the District's first millionaire. The festivities will run from noon to 3 p.m. in the Museum Gift Shop and light refreshments will be served.

Sunday, May 10 - Happy Mother's Day! All moms will receive complimentary admission to the Museum from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Friday, May 15 - The Museum will kick off for the summer with a day of free admission to celebrate Historic Preservation Month. Admission is free all day, and guests will receive complimentary lapel stickers. Summer hours at the Museum will be seven days a week from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Friday, May 22 - An Evening at the Museum, 5 to 9 p.m. Come enjoy the beauty of the Museum when it is lit up at night! Guests are invited for a full tour of the Museum during the evening hours, including our 1890's Assay Office and the Museum Gift Shop. Light hors d'oeuvres will be served. Admission is $5 for adults, $4 for Colorado residents, and $3 for military (active or not), seniors and children under 12.
